

Donation of Shares to Canadian Foodgrains Bank Instructions:

Canadian Foodgrains Bank accepts donations of securities through RBC Dominion Securities.

Donations are initiated when a donor contacts their personal brokerage firm with instructions on making a donation. Should you decide to donate securities, you will first need to send a letter of instruction to your personal brokerage firm that includes the following:

Canadian Foodgrains Bank Brokerage Information:

RBC Dominion Securities
Canadian Foodgrains Bank Account 781 2247414
QYUD# DOMA
Date to be completed: _____

In addition,

Please fax or email copy of the “Donor Information” form to:

Canadian Foodgrains Bank
Attention Julie Derksen
Fax #: 204-943-2597 or resfin@foodgrainsbank.ca

Securities donated to Canadian Foodgrains Bank are not held, but are liquidated on receipt. The value forms the basis for your tax deductible charitable donation receipt.

Thank you for considering the Canadian Foodgrains Bank in your charitable giving. Together we can make a difference in ending hunger.

Donor Information

DATE: _____

Please email or fax the following information to Canadian Foodgrains Bank:

Donor Contact Information:

Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Securities transferred to Canadian Foodgrains Bank

(number or dollar amount of shares)

(security name / description)

Member Designation (if any): _____

FINS # T002 / CUID: DOMA / DTC: 5002 / Dealer Rep #: 9190-NTD

Canadian Foodgrains Bank a/c #: 781-22474-1-4

Contact: RBC DS Phone: 204-982-2618 / Fax: 204-982-2649

*On fax attention to: Attn: Jim MacDonald's Office

CHECK LIST:

Before sending, make sure you:

- Complete all donor information (this ensures proper receipting)
- Select Member Designation or General Account
- Complete all information on form
- Fax or email copy to broker
- Fax or email copy to Julie Derksen at Canadian Foodgrains Bank